Mr. Matthew Baird
Director of Training
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington 25, D. C.

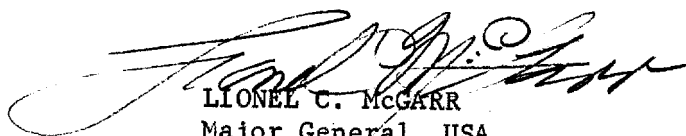

Dear Mr. Baird:

In answer to your letter of 8 September 1959, we will contact you in the near future regarding the presentation on CIA's wartime functions discussed with you by Colonel Garrett. I appreciate the assistance you gave to Colonel Garrett during his visit to Central Intelligence Agency.

Thank you very much for your offer of a background orientation lecture on the "overall role" of the Central Intelligence Agency. This lecture would, I am sure, be interesting and profitable. However, our guest speaker program is fully committed for the current academic year and, therefore, we will not be able to include it this year. We do include in our curriculum some coverage of the mission and the role of the Central Intelligence Agency in the national intelligence effort.

We are looking forward with interest to the presentation which Colonel Garrett explored informally with you. You can expect more information as to the requested date and other details in a follow-up letter after our post-Christmas schedule is finalized.

Sincerely,

LIONEL C. MCGARR
Major General, USA
Commandant
